I am poem examples elementary printable

[Introduction] [Printable Worksheets] [example] Introduction: stanza is a group of poetry lines (usually 4 or more) organized according to a fixed plan. Five Line Poems is a great way to introduce the idea of a stanza to a child - each stanza poem has five lines (you'd normally have kids complete three or four stanzas). If you do five lines of poems with children, give them the first or last line of each stanza and let them shape the rest. Remember, not all poems need to rhyme! For example: I am _____ and _____. It could be the first line of any stanza. The children filled the gaps and then shaped the rest of the poem accordingly. Stanza 1: When I was a kid, the rest of the stanza was reduced. Stanza 2: When I was in kindergarten, Stanza 3: Now that I'm Grade ___, Stanza 1: Spring is a growing season. Stanza 2: Summer is the heat season. Stanza 3: Autumn is the season of colours. Stanza 4: Winter is a white season. Children would use the above last line of each stanza Printable Worksheets: Worksheet 1: Information about stanzas and space to write a guided three stanza, five lines of poetry.
